SECTION XVII – GUIDELINES FOR RESEARCH PROPOSAL REQUESTS AND APPROVAL

The following guidelines describe the process and approve requests to collect data from members of the Illinois Association of School Nurses (IASN) via webmail, list serve, or at IASN sponsored events:

Purpose: IASN encourages and supports research regarding school nursing and health of school aged children to advance and fund quality school nursing practice and school-affiliated delivery of healthcare.

Research Proposal Application Responsibilities

Requests for research are expected to meet academic rigor for scientific inquiry. The application must demonstrate that the project meets at least one of the following requirements.

- Address a specific area of school nursing or school health focus as identified by NASN research priority (<http://www.nasn.org/Research/ResearchPrioritiesforSchoolNursing>)
- Propose an innovative, uniquely creative project that addresses current issues in school nursing or children’s health or an area of interest not previously considered that impacts school health or school nursing practice.
- Investigate school nurses’ attitudes towards or knowledge of an area related to school nursing.

The applicant MUST submit appropriate plan(s) for INSTITUTIONAL REVIEW BOARD (IRB) and/or appropriate administrative body approval of the project. Note: A copy of the letter(s) of IRB or administrative body approval needs to be forwarded to IASN Inquiry and Innovation Committee Chair before the research project can be initiated.

Priority will be given to applications that include partnerships and affiliations which could pool research efforts to maximize fund usage and best outcomes for meeting NASN objectives. Affiliations and partnerships could include:

- Academic institutions
- School district educational research
- School nurses and nurse researchers
- Professional Nursing Associations
- Pediatric organizations such as AAP, NAPNAP, IPN (Institute of Pediatric Nursing)
- Healthcare entities, foundations, corporations, and others
- Community stakeholders
- Interdisciplinary professionals

The strength of completed applications will be evaluated by three IASN Inquiry and Innovation Committee members. Applications may be sent back for revision (maximum of 2 times). Applications that pass the Inquiry and Innovation Committee review, will be forwarded to the IASN Executive Board for comment and/or final approval.

- IASN reserves the right to deny research requests for any reason.
- Applicants will be notified in writing of justification for approval or denial by the IASN Inquiry and Innovation Chair.
- All decisions of the Inquiry and Innovation Committee shall be final.

Terms of Agreement

- The IASN Inquiry and Innovation Committee will review submitted applications within 6 weeks of Rasncsn60submission.
- If the research project is approved, the researchers will sign IASN's Memorandum of Agreement (MOA) that lists expectations for the project (see MOU supplement)
- The applicant will submit completed research results to the IASN Poster Session at the Annual Conference as outlined by the IASN Poster Submission Guidelines
- Applicant(s) must follow all instructions, inclusive of specified format and application completeness.

Applicant Instructions

All application materials should be emailed as attachments to the IASN Inquiry and Innovation Chair. The application process is completed by downloading an application from the IASN website. The application includes the following attachments.

- Completed Project Narrative (maximum 8 pages): This is the main body of information which describes the research project. This includes a detailed description of the study, its design and how it will be implemented, who will be involved, what results are expected, what data will be collected, and how it will be analyzed. When preparing the project narrative section, address each of the areas listed in the following sequence:

A. Study Aim/Hypothesis/Research Question
